Chartered by the State in 1854, and authorized to confer the Highest Educational Honore on Young Ladies.

MERITS-AIM-CARE-Parents and Guard-MERITS—AIM—IAIX—Parents and Guard-ians are expectally invited to consider the mer-its of this Institution. To educate—in the true sense of the word—to educate thoroughly the young ladies of the South, is its aim. The de-partments of Mathematics, Physical and Moral Sciences, Literature, Ancient and Modern Lan-guages, Music, Drawing, etc., are ably filled by accompileted teachers male and female.

Special circs—It may be said, uncommon cars accomplished teachers, male and female.

Special cure—it may be said, uncommon cars is taken not only to thoroughly educate in the Aris and Sciences, but to render the pupils contented and happy, to train their moral sentiments, to calityate correct tastes, to preserve tueir health, and to throw around them proper restraints. In short, to afford to patrons one of the very best regulated institutions in the land.

the land.

APPAMATUS.—Arrangements have been made to supply the College with suitable Apparatus sufficient to illustrate the Sciences, and to give a practical knowledge of them. In addition, the classe in Chemistry, Astronomy and Natural Philosophy, through the courtesy of the officers of the State University, will have access to its large and well appointed Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus, excelled by hone in the South, and to be lavored with lectures and experimental illustrations by link deriand and experimental illustrations by Dra. Garland and Hilgard, the learned Professors in thes Departments.

Building—Location.—The building, estimated to be worth $40,000, is commodious, com-REFERENCES. — 11 batrons and pupils of the Col ege.

BOARDING DEPARTMENT.—In charge of Rev.
W. W. McMahon, is Rept in a style seldom, if ever, equaled. All the teachers board in the cologe.

Uniformity of Dress-Economy.—Purple Calco, Brown Merino, Pink Detaine, Pink Laws and White Dresses, Plain Hat, trimmed only with a band of black velves. Those wisning to wear mourning are required to conform in plainness of dress, but not in color. As economy is the oul- of this arrangement, new pupils need not by adds clothing air-sady on hand, if as plain as the uniform, but when additional purchases are necessary, the uniform must be regarded.

Expresses.—Per scerion of 30 weeks, half in advance:
